

Janet Davies, Professional Standards Committee representative for Wales

My career journey began 21 years ago as a careers adviser and with an interest in career development I moved on to supporting careers staff in achieving accredited qualifications. Currently I am on secondment as a Policy Manager with a responsibility for Learning and Development at Careers Wales, my substantive post is as an Accreditation and Learning Coordinator managing the OCR Accreditation Centre.