

Careers Impact internal leadership review: Overview

The internal leadership review is an integral component of the Careers Impact System, a step-by-step and integrated approach to improving and assuring the quality of careers education in schools and colleges.

Careers Impact System - what Education Leaders are saying:

- ✓ 96% of Education Leaders say it will lead to improved careers provision
- ✓ 86% say it will lead to improved student outcomes
- ✓ 72% say it has established strong links between careers and school improvement

Why undertake an internal leadership review?

Undertaking an internal leadership review supports the quality assurance of your careers provision and encourages continuous improvement aligned to your school, special school or college's priorities.

Embedding Careers Impact internal leadership reviews will:

Engage leaders through informed and impactful SLT and governor engagement in and vision for sustainable and strategic careers leadership

Align priorities through intentional distributed leadership of careers as a driver for whole institution improvement

Embed best practice through improved understanding of best practice in careers leadership and of meaningful and sustained achievement of the Gatsby Benchmarks

Celebrate success through recognitions of strengths in and impact of careers leadership and provision

Sustain quality and impact through internal quality assurance and impact evaluation of careers leadership and provision
