

Kath Wright, Council Member

Kath is a consultant, trainer and writer specialising in careers and work-related education and has over 30 years' experience of working in education covering posts in schools, a careers/Connexions service and Essex local authority. She has written careers and work-related learning materials for secondary school students of all ages and good practice guides for teachers and employers, including Better Practice 2.

A Past President of the Association for Careers Education and Guidance. She chaired the Advisers and Inspectors for Careers Education (AICE) for some ten years and has been a board member of LEACAN.

Kath wrote the CDI teachers' guide 'Why does employer engagement matter?' and coordinated the updating of the ACEG framework, creating the new Careers, Employability and Enterprise framework for the CDI.

She was re-elected to the CDI Council in October 2015.