

CDI National Careers Leaders Conference 2020: Special discounts on two books

Careers Education in Schools David Andrews (2019)

This authoritative, updated second edition traces a hundred years of the history of careers education. It shows what went right and what went wrong, and concludes by making recommendations for a better future for this important element of the school curriculum.

£15 a copy (25% discount on usual book price)
No delivery charge

The Careers Leader Handbook David Andrews & Tristram Hooley (2018)

Highly practical and lively, this book sets out the role of the careers leader in a comprehensive and systematic way. Based around the Gatsby Benchmarks, it offers advice and ideas on what constitutes a good careers programme. It also provides plentiful resources and tools to support you to plan, develop and maintain an outstanding careers programme.

£20 a copy (20% discount on usual book price)
No delivery charge

Order both books together and get a further discount: £30 (a 33% discount)

To place an order simply send an email to davidandrews_ceg@hotmail.com stating which book(s) you want and giving the postal address to which they should be sent.

Please also specify who, or which organisation, the invoice should be made out to and provide a Purchase Order number where required. Payment will be collected after you receive the books. This can be by bank transfer or cheque (details will be on the invoice enclosed with the books). The offer remains open until the end of December 2020.